Indigenous Leaders

Purpose:
The purpose of this session is for you to explore the core values of Indigenous leadership styles, skills, and attributes. You will identify which styles and skills you currently possess and what skills you would like to further develop.

I will...
- identify which Indigenous leadership style I'm drawn to
- classify my skills into the four ways leaders are motivated to approach tasks
- imagine who I see myself becoming

Session Outline
- Welcome video
- 'My Respected Leader' activity
- 'What Type of Leader Am I' activity

  - Final Reflections

Think about which leadership style you are drawn to and how that might work in your community. Consider times when it might be good to use another leadership style(s).

<td>Relies heavily on getting others to do what you want them to do, by commanding others to follow their policies without consulting them</td>
<td>The upside of autocratic leadership is the speed at which decisions are made</td>
<td>The downside is that decisions made by one person or a small group of people do not take into account the needs of others, which can hurt the group</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LAISSE-FAIRE (OR FREE-REIN)</td>
<td>Allows people to make their own decisions, putting responsibility on the individual</td>
<td>The upside is the freedom to make your own decisions</td>
<td>The downside is that some people need help and resources to figure out what is best. If everyone is helping themselves, there’s usually no thought about the future or building sustainable practices, which can be harmful to individuals and the group</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HORIZONTAL OR TRADITIONAL</td>
<td>Consults with all members of the group and hears what is and is not important to them. The group works together to put policies in place, and they talk regularly about those policies and how they are working, or not</td>

LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Below are some examples of what types of leadership skills you may possess. Think about what skills describes you, or what skills you would like to work towards. 1) Read through, and 2) circle those that apply to you.

<table>

<tr>

<tr>
<td>Honesty and Integrity</td>
<td>Honesty and integrity are two important ingredients which make a good leader. How can you expect others to be honest when you lack these qualities yourself? Leaders succeed when they stick to their values and core beliefs.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Confidence</td>
<td>Having confidence means you are sure about your own decisions and qualities.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Inspire Others</td>
<td>To inspire, you must set a good example. People notice what you do, younger kids look up to you and see how you react to the situation. If you handle it well, you can inspire others to do the same.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commitment and Passion</td>
<td>People look up to those who are committed and passionate about the work they do. They want to be a part of that energy.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Good Communicator</td>
<td>A good communicator can be a good leader. Words have the power to motivate people and make them do the unthinkable. If you use them effectively, you can also achieve better results.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Decision-Making Capabilities</td>
<td>A leader should think long and hard before making a decision but once the decision is taken, stand by it. Talk to others to make sure you have the full picture before making a decision that will affect others.</td>

MORE LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Accountability
Hold yourself accountable for the decisions you make. Everything is a learning opportunity. If it doesn't work, think about why, and what you can do next time. To build trust, be upfront and honest about what you've learned.

Delegation and Empowerment
You cannot do everything. Share tasks with others to accomplish goals. This can help build trust and a stronger sense of teamwork.

Creativity and Innovation
Creative thinking and constant innovation is what makes you and your team stand out from the crowd. Think out of the box to come up with unique ideas and turn those ideas and goals into reality.

Empathy
Understanding the problems of others and feeling their pain can help you be an empathetic leader.

Resilience
No matter how difficult things may get, you stay positive and rally.

Emotional Intelligence
The better aware you are of your feelings and emotions, the better you can control them, which prevents negative emotions from influencing your decision-making skills.
MORE LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Humility
A good leader is always selfless and always think about others.

Transparency
To build trust, be open with others. It also makes your plans and goals clear.

Vision and Purpose
Good leaders always have a vision and purpose. They visualize the future, share their vision, so that others can see where they are heading and share their plan for getting there.

ATTRIBUTES
Below are some examples of leadership attributes that you may possess. Think about what attributes best describe you. Circle those that apply to you.
MY RESPECTED LEADER

Think about a person you admire and respect as a leader. This may be an elder, relative, friend, community member, or someone from history.

What has this person done to show you they are a leader?

Read about each type of health to find out what it means to take care of every wonderful part of you!

Mental
As we learn more about our thoughts, they become less negative, making way for more positivity. By not constantly dwelling upon sad or painful memories, we can create room for more positive memories.

Physical
Taking care of what we eat, how we sleep, and exercise can give us more energy and motivation.

Social
The better connected we are to the world and our creator, the better we can connect to the feeling of being a part of something bigger than ourselves.

Spiritual
The better connected we are to the world and our creator, the better we can connect to the feeling of being a part of something bigger than ourselves.

"GLOW & GROW"

FEEDBACK

Good friends help each other to ‘glow’ and ‘grow’ by providing them with feedback that encourages them to be the best versions of themselves.

You can choose a sentence starter to give feedback:

Glow Feedback

- “I like how you...”
- “I really like the way you...”
- “I liked (insert) the best...”

Grow Feedback

- “It might also be helpful to...”
- “Your next step might be to...”
- “One suggestion would be to...”
Let it Go!

Sometimes we get upset over things we can't control or change. It can help if we tell ourselves to "let it go". What can you let go of? Draw or write in the balloons and choose to let them go!

My Self-Care Plan

Instructions: Think about what self-care activities make most sense for you, your lifestyle, and your goals. Select three activities (from the list given, or create your own) and put them in your self-care activity plan. For each activity, write down how, where, when you will do them. And, what will you do to make sure these activities are a part of your life?

#1 Self-Care Activity

How:

Where:

When, will I do this?:

How will I make sure this happens?

#2 Self-Care Activity

How:

Where:

When, will I do this?:

How will I make sure this happens?

#3 Self-Care Activity

How:

Where:

When, will I do this?:

How will I make sure this happens?

Time to Talk Myself Up!

Instructions: Think about one statement (or more!) you can tell yourself when you’re feeling down or could use a little encouragement. Use the list you’re given or create your own. Put that statement(s) below:

Example Self-Care Activities

Start an Art Journal, Dance, Write, Unplug, Take a Walk, List 3 Things I’m Grateful for, Pray, Talk to a Friend or Elder, Take a Shower, Cut my Nails, Do my Hair, Smudge, Breathing Exercises, Sweat, Traditional Art, Listen to Music, Sit by a Body of Water, Read a Book, Make a Funny Video, Connect with my Culture, Sing, Be Nice to Someone, Laugh, Volunteer, Look at Stars, Nap, Daydream, Speak My Language, Cook, Create Your Own...

Listen – to what you say to yourself. Notice if it’s mostly negative or positive.
Challenge – what you say to yourself. Would you say this to a friend?
Change – how you talk to yourself. Try asking yourself, “What can I do to help me do this”? You’re here for a reason!
My Self-care Vision

How do I envision my self-care plan looking on the daily, or in times when I could use some self love?
Imagine. Then draw, doodle, write, or record a video.

Journal Space:
What have I learned about myself?

What changes have you seen in yourself throughout this program? What are you proud of? What would you like to continue to work on? Imagine. Then draw, doodle, write, or record a video.

Journal Space:
Well done on completing the We R Native Youth Ambassador Program!

You are the change your ancestors called for.
Congratulations!

THE WORLD BETTER GET READY FOR YOU!
LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING ALL THE WONDERFUL THINGS YOU WILL DO!
